

A very special sketch

When Bishop Paul and Mrs Susan Colton arrived in Cork in 1999 they found a lot of things stored in the basement of their new home and decided to sort through it all.

Hidden among everything was a book of photographs of St Fin Barre's Cathedral belonging to the Gregg family and at the back was this sketch.

Read what it says.

It was done, we think, for Bishop Gregg's grandson: John Gregg Madden who was born in September 1876. He was the son of Dean Madden and his wife Charlotte (Bishop Gregg's daughter).

Why is this sketch interesting and important?

If you were colouring it in, what colours would you use?
